

ADVISORY COUNCIL

Thursday, August 14, 2014

10:00 a.m.

Aging Network Conference Room

2670 Union Avenue Extended, Memphis, TN 38112

The mission of the Aging Commission of the Mid-South Advisory Council, as the eyes and ears of the communities it serves, is to improve services to the seniors and adults with disabilities in the City of Memphis and Shelby, Fayette, Lauderdale and Tipton Counties, by collaboratively advocating for the issues and needs of these populations through educating and effectively communicating with legislators and the community. The vision of the Aging Commission of the Mid-South Advisory Council is to be a collective and diverse group of knowledgeable, results-oriented advocates for seniors and adults with disabilities
