

to online registration

2016 Memphis Area Breastfeeding Symposium June 8, 2016

Calling all providers of care for mothers and babies! The Shelby County Breastfeeding Coalition welcomes area Pediatricians, OBGYNs, Neonatologists, Nurses, hospital Administrators, Peer Counselors, Nutritionists and community leaders to the first Memphis Area Breastfeeding Symposium.

Shelby County Mayor Mark Luttrell, Dr. Michael Warren, Asst. Commissioner TN Dept of Health, and Dr. Alisa Haushalter, Director Shelby County Health Department will set the tone for the event. Come and hear about Baby Friendly and hospital breastfeeding protocols from Erlanger Hospital in Chattanooga. Dr. Elizabeth Froh, from The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, will speak on Breastmilk in the NICU. The Keynote Address on Racial Disparities in Breastfeeding will be given by Kimarie Bugg, CEO of ROSE, and Dr. Matthews-Juarez, from Meharry Medical College.

Registration is Now Open!

Registration is free and lunch will be provided. (CERPs/CEUs for $10) To reserve your seat go to:

www.shelbycountybreastfeeding.org

8:30am - 4:30pm (Twitter Party from 4:30 - 5:00)
University of Memphis Holiday Inn Conference Center
3700 Central Avenue, Memphis, TN 38111
For Hotel Information and Rates Call:
(901) 678.8200

