

View this email in your browser

Memphis-Shelby County Office of Sustainability

Be sure to like us on facebook and check the website calendar for additional items throughout the month:

Students from Mississippi State University Department of Landscape Architecture dedicated a semester to addressing urban forest revitalization in the Memphis region. They shared their findings with us here!

In the News...

Congratulations to the first individual and group winners of We Sustain Shelby!

IKEA plans state's largest rooftop solar array at Memphis store

Bike share effort taps other cities for clear path

Editorial: The New Map of Memphis

June Sustainability Events!

Second Biannual

Greenprint Summit

– (June 23, 7:30am-10:30am). Join the Office of Sustainability at Memphis Botanic Gardens. Featuring keynote speakers Karl Dean (former Mayor of Nashville, 2007-2015), Ryan Gravel (Sixpitch Founding Principal, and Atlanta BeltLine Visionary), and Laura Morris (former Executive Director of Shelby Farms Park Conservancy, 2010-2016) discussing the topics of grassroots organizing and its importance in the successful establishment and sustainability of urban green infrastructure. Register!

The Future of Environment and Sustainability Professions

– (June 20, 11:30am-1pm). Join International Society of Sustainability Professionals (ISSP) at Agricenter International to hear Professor Dodd Galbreath from Lipscomb University share some of the most important lessons learned from recent discussions held on April 13 at the Lipscomb Sustainability Summit. Register!

Cycle the Greenway – (June 4, 6:30am-10am). Join Wolf River Conservancy to help raise funds and enjoy a ride on the greenway. More info here.

Clean Memphis Spring Clean-Up Day – (June 4, 9a-12p). The Connection Shalom Zone in partnership with Clean Memphis will meet volunteers at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, 3745 Kimball Avenue to help clean up around the neighborhood. Please bring your own work gloves. Other clean up materials provided. More info here.

Overton Park's Day of Merrymaking – (June 4, 10am-3p). A Day of Merrymaking is a free festival for families—kids and dogs more than welcome!—that welcomes summer on the Overton Park Greensward. There will be a hot air balloon, live music, food trucks, local craft vendors, performances, and much more. Learn

more.

Feast on the Farm – (June 17, 7pm). Join Agricenter for its annual education fundraiser – a tasting event featuring creations from acclaimed chefs and produce from their farmer’s market. More info and tickets here.

Agricenter Solar Tour – (June 21, 10am). Ever wondered how solar panels work? Agricenter is offering a Solar Tour for the general public on June 21, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. Call Tim Roberts at 901-435-7109 to reserve your spot. Or if you have a group of 25 or more, call for special scheduling. Meet Tim at Arrowhead Nursery at 7466 Smythe Farm Rd.

CNG Road Rally Media Stop – (June 3, 3pm). MLGW is hosting an official media stops of the National CNG Road Rally at the South Service Center CNG Fueling Station at 3071 South Center Road. More info here.

Fairgrounds Walking Tour – (June 19, 2pm). Shelby Co Historian Jimmy Ogle will speak on natural and cultural history and its future plans. Tour presented by Livable Memphis and partners. View schedule here.

Memphis Green Drinks - (June 21, 6:30-9pm). Join the Memphis Green Drinks chapter at Abe Goodman Clubhouse in Overton Park (2080 Poplar Avenue) for guest speakers Jessica Buttermore and Stacey Greenberg from the Citizens to Preserve Overton Park (CPOP). Visit the Green Drinks website for more information.

Women’s Bike Chat – (June 19, 2pm). Women gather the third Sunday of each month to discuss bicycle issues. Bring your bike for a short ride afterward. Info here.

Facebook

Twitter

Website