WORKSHOP FOR ENTREPRENEURS WILL HELP THEM
'MIND THEIR BUSINESS'

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Current and future small business owners looking for ways to take their business to the next level are invited to attend Minding Your Business, a panel discussion with experts who will provide motivation and financial management tips to strengthen their businesses. The event will take place on Nov. 3 at The Office at Uptown (594 S. Second St.) at 6 p.m.

Experts on the panel include: Dr. Sid, Pastor and Life Coach; Sherita Goodman, a financial management counselor with Operation HOPE, and Darell Harrington, Regional Program Officer at Hope Credit Union. Topics will center on the entrepreneur mindset, overcoming obstacles to entrepreneurship, managing personal and business finances, credit, and lending resources for business owners.

“It has been proven that small businesses are essential to job creation and a thriving middle class economy,” said Shelby County Trustee David C. Lenoir. “The Minding Your Business workshop is our investment into entrepreneurs who will help shape the financial future of Shelby County.”

The Trustee’s Office also hosts the Icehouse Entrepreneurship model. It is an eight-week course dedicated to teaching the entrepreneur mindset to future business owners.

Admission for the Minding Your Business workshop is free but registration is required. People interested in attending can visit www.mindingyourbusinessmemphis.eventbrite.com to register.

Additional questions can be directed to the Shelby County Trustee’s Office, at (901) 222-0200.
