

Agricenter International

A non-profit dedicated to agricultural research, education, and conservation

Free admission. Come shop from over 40 vendors for last minute Christmas gifts! This Saturday only, Dec 3rd, at the Farmer's Market. This show is hosted by Agricenter.

Businesses, can you sponsor one of our 3 signature events in 2017? Click here to see levels of sponsorship for Feast on the Farm Gala, Harvest Festival, & Jr. Fishing Rodeo.

On our first Energy Field Day we educated over 300 students about solar energy, electricity, and alternative fuels.

This month Agricenter hid #901Rocks throughout the community! Did you find one?

This Case IH equipment was on display for a training class. Did you know our Expo Center was designed to showcase agricultural equipment?

As you plan your year-end giving, please consider a donation to Agricenter. We do not receive operating funds from government; we are a non-profit that relies on your generosity. Click the sunflower below to make your gift.

Our friends at Country Gardens are selling their Christmas trees until Dec 24th at the ShowPlace Arena parking lot.

Agricenter leases space - we do not endorse products or sell tickets.

On our Farm: All crops have been harvested and these winter crops have been planted: wheat, barley, rape, carinata, and crambe. In the winter we work on equipment.

Garden tip for December: Plant tulips, apply lime if needed, if no rain then water plants prior to a freeze, & protect tender plants with 6-8" of mulch or pine straw.
