To ensure protection of the Annesdale Park Historic District, all exterior new construction, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Annesdale Park Historic District.

MEMPHIS LANDMARKS COMMISSION
City Hall Room 443
125 N. Main Street
Memphis, TN 38103-2084
Office: (901) 576-7191
Fax: (901) 576-7178
To ensure protection of the Annesdale-Snowden Historic District, all exterior new construction, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Annesdale-Snowden Historic District.
To ensure protection of the Central Gardens Historic District, all exterior new construction, habitable additions, demolitions, and building relocations must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call (901) 576-7191 for more information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com.

See reverse side of this map for additional information regarding the types of projects requiring approval in the Central Gardens Historic District.
To ensure protection of the Cotton Row and Gayoso–Peabody Historic Districts, all exterior new constructions, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Cotton Row and Gayoso–Peabody Historic Districts.

MEMPHIS LANDMARKS COMMISSION

City Hall Room 443
125 N. Main Street
Memphis, TN 38103-2084
Office: (901) 576-7191
Fax: (901) 576-7178
To ensure protection of the Evergreen Historic District, all exterior new constructions, habitable additions, demolitions, and building relocations must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC) prior to the start of work.

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call (901) 576-7191 for more information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com.

See reverse side of this map for additional information regarding the types of projects requiring approval in the Evergreen Historic District.

MEMPHIS LANDMARKS COMMISSION
City Hall Room 443
125 N. Main Street
Memphis, TN 38103-2084
Office: (901) 576-7191
Fax: (901) 576-7178
To ensure protection of the Glenview Historic District, all exterior new constructions, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Glenview Historic District.
To ensure protection of the Lea’s Woods Historic District, all exterior new constructions, habitable additions, demolitions, and building relocations must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC) prior to the start of work.

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call (901) 576-7191 for more information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com.

See reverse side of this map for additional information regarding the types of projects requiring approval in the Lea’s Woods Historic District.
To ensure protection of the Maxwelton Historic District, all exterior new constructions, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application Information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Maxwelton Historic district.
To ensure protection of the Rozelle-Annesdale Historic District, all exterior new construction, habitable additions, demolitions, and building relocation must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC) prior to the start of work.

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call (901) 576-7191 for more information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com.

See reverse side of this map for additional information regarding the types of projects requiring approval in the Rozelle-Annesdale Historic District.
To ensure protection of the South Main Street Historic District, all exterior new constructions, building alterations, demolitions, relocations, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the South Main Street Historic District.
To ensure protection of the Victorian Village and Collins Chapel Historic Districts, all exterior new construction, building alterations, demolition, relocation, and site improvements visible from the street must be reviewed and approved by the Memphis Landmarks Commission (MLC).

The MLC issues Certificates of Appropriateness (COA) for work that meets the design guidelines adopted for the district. The Commission meets once a month to review and approve projects. Call 576-7191 for COA application information or log onto www.memphislandmarks.com. See reverse side for work that requires MLC approval in the Victorian Village and Collins Chapel Historic Districts.

MEMPHIS LANDMARKS COMMISSION
City Hall Room 443
125 N. Main Street
Memphis, TN 38103-2084
Office: (901) 576-7191
Fax: (901) 576-7178