SCSO Makes Arrest in Squatters Case on Shady Grove

On 3/5/2013 Renasant Bank filed a complaint with the MPD regarding squatters located at a residence at 600 S. Shady Grove Road. Investigators were contacted by the DA's Office advising that Terri Ramsey filed a Protective Custody order with Juvenile Court to have a 13-year old minor child removed from Tabitha Gentry's custody.

DAG Task Force detectives along with Fugitive commanders and SWAT were notified that the squatters were held up inside along with minor children. SCSO Command made the decision to obtain Arrest Warrants for Tabitha Gentry AKA Abka Re Bey for Aggravated Burglary, Theft of Property over $60, 000, 00 and Criminal Trespass. A Search Warrant was also drafted for the residence on Shady Grove which is a foreclosure owned by Renasant Bank and is valued at $3.1 million dollars.

Surveillance was set up at the home and Tabitha Gentry was taken into custody after leaving the residence and is now being held on a $2 Million dollar bond.

The 13-year old child was released into her Aunt's custody and another minor child was placed in DCS custody. The case is still being investigated by the DAG Task Force and other suspects are being identified with additional charges likely.
