Shelby County Sheriff's Office Receives Gold Award for Facebook Page

Hermes Creative Awards is an international competition for creative professionals involved in the concept, writing and design of traditional and emerging media.

The awards are administered by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals that recognize outstanding work in the industry. Recently, the Shelby County Sheriff's Office Facebook page received the Gold Award in the Social Media/Facebook Site category.

"To be recognized by such a prestigious worldwide organization is a very high honor," said Sheriff Bill Oldham. The page is administered by Sgt. Matthew Keaton and Chip Washington.

The Gold Award is presented to those entries judged to exceed the high standards of the industry norm and approximately 19 percent of the entries received this award. There were about 5,600 entries from throughout the United States and several other countries.
