SCSO Makes Multiple Arrests in Theft of Property Case

On 11/19/2013 just after 5:00 am, Sheriff's Deputies responded to a Theft of property call on the 5800 block of Polk. The victim advised that a 2010 Ford F350 pick-up truck along with a flatbed trailer had been stolen from his driveway sometime during the night.

The complainant contacted the company he works for and was advised that the GPS locator was activated on the vehicle. Dispatch received the location of the vehicle which was a home on the 3800 block of Newton. When deputies arrived at the location, they found the truck in the driveway and the trailer unattached under the carport. Also discovered were two Baja type motorcycles on a trailer in the backyard of the residence which were stolen from Tractor Supply on the 9700 block of Hwy 64.

Deputies found and arrested four suspects; Mike Tackett, 37, Rodney Presley, Sr., 40, Rodney Presley, Jr., 20 and Kendall Vansickle, 52.

Tackett and Vansickle were charged with Theft $1000-$10,000 and Theft over $60,000. Rodney Presley, Sr. charged with Theft over $60,000. Rodney Presley, Jr. Theft $1000-$10,000.
