Officers are searching for a Shelby County Corrections Center inmate who walked away from a southeast Memphis work detail today.

Supervisors discovered Corry Dean, 26, missing from Franklin Sports, 3860 Holmes Road, just before Noon.

Twelve inmates are assigned to the distribution center to prepare orders for shipping.

Dean is serving a three-year sentence for being a Convicted Felon in Possession of a Handgun.

Corry Dean is black, stands 6'2, weighs 155 pounds and has short hair. He has tattoos on both arms. One tattoo on his right hand continues up the length of his arm. Dean was wearing a blue shirt with the letters "SCDC" in yellow across the back along with a navy jean jacket.

Dean and other correction center inmates who meet certain qualifications are permitted to work at various government facilities, non-profit organizations and businesses throughout Shelby County.

Anyone with information about Corry Dean is asked to call Crime Stoppers at (901) 528- CASH (2274).
