

Green Matters for Women of Shelby County

Announcing the inaugural meeting of “Green Matters for Women of Shelby County” a networking opportunity for women either in the environmental field or have an interest in “green” and sustainable topics. Join the women of TDEC and the Office of Sustainability for a brown bag luncheon at Shelby Farms Park. We will hear from special guests Margot McNeeley of Project Green Fork & Betsy Peterson of Shelby Farms Park Conservancy.

June 11, 12:00 - 1:00pm, Shelby Farms Visitor Center, 500 N. Pine Lake Dr.

*Bring your own lunch, no RSVP needed* <http://bit.ly/SenLVw>

Green Matters for Shelby County Women

 Brown Bag Luncheon

June 11
12:00 - 1:00pm

Shelby Farms Visitor Center
500 N. Pine Lake Dr.

*Bring your own lunch, no RSVP needed***

You're Invited to network & hear special guests
Margot McNeeley of Project Green Fork
& Betsy Peterson of Shelby Farms
Park Conservancy

Sponsored by:
Memphis-Shelby County Office of Sustainability &
Tennessee Department of Environment & Conservation (TDEC)

 