

KLONDIKE SMOKEY CITY

Community Development Corporation

Contact: Ms. Quincey Morris (901) 743-6958 ms.qgm@att.net, Gayla Burks, Director of Partnerships and Research, Crosstown Development Project (901) 507-8034 gayla@crosstownmemphis.com, or Steve Shular, Shelby County Mayor's Office, (901) 355-5117

News Release

June 23, 2014

Klondike-Smokey City Job Fair Set for June 28th

Residents of the Klondike and Smokey City areas of North Memphis will have an opportunity to help them find work this weekend.

The Klondike-Smokey City Community Development Corporation is sponsoring a Job Fair this Saturday, June 28th, at the Dave Wells Community Center, 915 Chelsea Avenue from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.

“We held a job preparation event on June 7th and had almost 70 people attend. Saturday’s fair will feature employers who are ready to hire people,” said Ms. Quincey Morris, President of the Klondike Smokey City Community Development Corporation.

Twelve organizations participated in the Job PREP Workshop on June 7th. Sixteen companies will have representatives to assist job seekers at this Saturday’s Job Fair:

Sheraton Downtown
My Faith Home Maker Program
Private 1st class Driving Academy
Double Tree Hotel
TruGreen
Grinder Taber Grinder
Quality One Painting and Remodeling
Church Health Center
Lewis Help Today Foundation
Durham School Services
Workforce Development Network
Avon
TGI Friday's
Olympic Career Training Institute and Staffing Company
Shelby County Government Re-Entry Program
Shelby County Government Human Resources

“The job fair will be a wonderful event for our neighborhood. It’s another way the Klondike-Smokey City Community Development Corporation is serving residents in this area of north Memphis,” added Ms. Morris.

(End of Release)