FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Australian Trade Commissioners to visit Agricenter International

April 7, 2015...Visiting members of the Australian Trade Commission will meet with civic and industry leaders at Agricenter International on Friday, April 10, 2015. The purpose of the visit is for local leaders in the field of agriculture to share information regarding potential technology and trade opportunities between Australia and the United States.

Cheryl Stanilewicz, the Senior Trade Commissioner at the Australian Embassy in Washington DC and Santiago Foldvari, the Director of investment at the Embassy of Australia in Washington DC will be on Agricenter's campus between 9 am and noon. A brief meet and greet social event is planned for 10:00 am at Agricenter's board room.

"This is a great opportunity for our local leaders in agriculture to share opportunities for trade. We are all trying to find better, more economical ways to food, clothe and fuel our world. Together, we can work toward reaching the best solutions faster" said Agricenter President, John Charles Wilson.

Members of the press are invited to attend the meet and greet event at 10:00 am at Agricenter's campus located at 7777 Walnut Grove Road, Memphis, TN 38120. Please RSVP to Jessica Watts at (901) 757-7777 or jwatts@agricenter.org no later than Thursday at noon.
